- Review annually the principles of corporate governance approved by the Board to ensure that they remain relevant and are being complied with; and
- Oversee compliance by the Board and its committees with applicable laws and regulations, including the NASDAQ Rules and regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Composition of the Board of Directors, Evaluation and Nominating Activities

- Review the composition and size of the Board;
- Determine the criteria for membership on the Board, with the objective of having a Board with relevant business and personal experience. The selection of qualified directors is crucial to the success of the Company. Included in the criteria which the Committee shall consider in evaluating members of its Board are: (1) a general understanding of marketing, finance and corporate practices relevant to an international public company; (2) issues of character, judgment, independence, diversity, age, length of service, and other commitments outside the Company; (3) an understanding of the Company's business and technology; (4) educational and professional background; and (5) a demonstrated concern for the long-term interests of the stockholders. The Committee shall evaluate each individual in the context of the Board as a whole, with the objective of recommending a group that can best manage the Company's business and represent stockholder interests.
- Conduct an annual evaluation of the Board as a whole;
- Identify, consider and recommend candidates to fill new positions or vacancies on the Board, and review any candidates recommended by stockholders in accordance with the bylaws; in performing these duties, the Committee shall have the authority to retain any search firm to be used to identify candidates for the Board and shall have sole authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms;

- Evaluate the performance of individual members of the Board eligible for re-election, and recommend the Director nominees for election to the Board by the stockholders at the annual meeting of stockholders;
- Evaluate director compensation, consulting with outside consultants when appropriate, and make recommendations to the Board regarding director compensation; and

Committees of the Board of Directors

- Periodically review the composition of each committee of the Board and make recommendations to the Board for the creation of additional committees or the change in mandate or dissolution of committees; and
- Recommend to the Board persons to be members of the various committees.

Conflicts of Interest

- Review and monitor compliance with the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics;
- Consider questions of possible conflicts of interest of members of the Board and of corporate officers; and
- Review actual and potential conflicts of interest of members of the Board and corporate officers, and clear any involvement of such persons in matters that may involve a conflict of interest.

4. EVALUATION OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee shall on an annual basis, evaluate its performance under this Charter. The Committee shall address all matters that the Committee considers relevant to its performance. The Committee shall deliver a report setting forth the results of its evaluation, including any recommended amendments to this Charter and any recommended changes to the Company's or the Board's policies or procedures.

5. INVESTIGATIONS AND STUDIES; OUTSIDE ADVISORS

The Committee may conduct or authorize investigations into or studies of matters within the Committee's scope of responsibilities, and may retain, at the Company's expense, such independent counsel or other advisors as it deems necessary. The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain or terminate any search firm to be used to identify director candidates, including sole authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms, such fees to be borne by the Company.
